

The Graveyard

All Through the Night'

On this page we go round the clock with Howard Yarnell, machinist on the graveyard shift at the Joshua Hendy Iron Works in Sunnyvale. Start with picture number one and follow him around the page to his breakfast in San Jose (number seven). At left is a photograph of Marinship on the graveyard shift.

2—At 11:45 p. m. he "punches in" and hoofs it over to shop

1—Howard Yarnell arrives at work from San Jose—he and four other workers form car pool

3—Howard takes over from Ray Thomas who's on swing shift
